WHAT'S IN STORE THIS YEAR FOR HOLLYWOOD'S BIGGEST STARS? THE MORNING SHOW'S PALMIST MAX COPPA REVEALS ALL...

Miranda's hand reveals her lifelong drive and ambition, and hints at new love this year.

The future looks bright!

Miranda Kerr

The supermodel's hand reveals that she was always going to shine.

Miranda has a string of broken hearts behind her and can detach just as quickly as she engages. She has a tendency to take control in relationships, and this could well be the reason why her recent love interests have fallen by the wayside.

Her heart line finishes on the mount of Jupiter, which reveals that she loves her work and is ambitious. Only a person who matches her own drive and values will be able to last the distance in a relationship with her.

Family lines on her hand indicate that Miranda's childhood has been her motivation to succeed and not be poor.

For Miranda, this will be another big year, and around June a new love enters her life.

Madonna

The singer's hand shows she is hard to deal with and lives in her own world. She is driven to succeed, with no inhibitions.

Relationship lines (under her pinky) show three major loves, while a strong yet wasted thumb reveals a feisty nature. The ageing process will be hard on Madonna, and cosmetic surgery is on the cards.

Nicole Kidman

Nicole's hand has lots of markings, which shows she's very sensitive.

Her fate line reflects her great talent, and she will take on different types of roles once she enters her 50s. Knotted joints show she doesn't let go of past relationship issues easily, and there's still a raw nerve from her time with ex-husband Tom Cruise.

Tom Cruise

Tom is strong and driven, but his withered fingers show he is hard on himself at times, although he's a good communicator and knows how to assert himself. His Jupiter (index) and Saturn (middle) fingers are similar in length, which shows he takes his chances – this is why he likes doing his own movie stunts.

Challenges with his father while growing up have only made him more intent to succeed.

Tom's career will bounce back this year, and new love stands out around June. His beliefs will also be challenged during this period – don't be surprised if secrets are revealed!

Angelina Jolie

The actress' long hand and fingers reflect her sensuous and creative nature. A high-set thumb indicates that she won't be swayed easily once she has made up her mind, and a wide space between her Jupiter (index) and Saturn (middle) fingers shows success and fame.

Angelina's sinewy hands reveal her true Gemini nature – she sees the world with different eyes, which may unsettle some people.

Markings on her thumb show that these traits have been strongly influenced by her childhood, and the way that she interacted with her mother.

This will be big year for Angelina, with a potential adoption also indicated.

Duchess Kate

Kate's hand reveals drive and achievement. She is analytical and plans her moves with great care.

The duchess is a lot like Princess Diana in many ways, even down to her Mercury (pinky) finger, which shows she will also think and express herself differently to the establishment.

The life line reveals that Kate's 30s will be the making of her. Her mount of Luna suggests she is intuitive and has many profound dreams, while the near future may hold another baby.

Reese Witherspoon

Strong mounts of Mars reveal a driven person who works hard, and equally strong mounts of Jupiter and Mercury show Reese has a good head for business.

She leads from the heart in relationships, which is why she has come unstuck and hasn't always made the best choices.

A fixed and high-set thumb reveal she won't budge on things once she has made up her mind.

Love does look a little better around Reese now, but past relationships still haunt her. Over the next two years she will change her thinking and get it right. Her 40s will bring her more happiness than ever, and there's even another baby indicated.

BABY JOY!

Liam Hemsworth

Liam's hand shows the charisma and drive that has made him the toast of Tinseltown. The square shape suggests he is very grounded and practical, and his approach to work is precise and professional too.

Liam has great relationship lines, but he needs to take his time in love and settling down, otherwise he will face a lot of challenges. The square tip of the thumb shows his determination, and the next five years hold great success. NI
